Hello from the Head...

We held a beautiful Remembrance Service yesterday; a very poignant and special time for our learning theme reflection, as Mr Dart showcased his cornet skills and played the Last Post. We are very proud of how mature and thoughtful the children were when discussing Remembrance.

On Monday our fantastic school governors came in for a Deep Dive Day, where they learnt more about the school, our curriculum and spoke to the children and staff. This was such a positive collaborative day and we feel very lucky to have such support.

Here are a few handy reminders:

- ✓ After School Hot Chocolate starts today – with our Friends of Astley.
- ✓ Please bring in any Harvest donations you have for Wednesday.
- ✓ Please make sure your children return their red and yellow star badges at the end of each week. The blue ones are to keep, but the red and yellow badges must come back in to school please on Fridays.
- ✓ Please remember that children shouldn't be bringing sweets into school. I appreciate it has just been Halloween – but please keep sweets for at home!
- ✓ Don't forget ODD SOCKS on Monday! We are celebrating Anti-Bullying Week next week and will be taking part in lots of fun and enriching activities.
- ✓ As per previous correspondence, we will be cashless for payments from 29th November.
- ✓ Children in Need – Rainbow Day next Friday 19th!

Today's FEEL GOOD FRIYAY ACE MUSIC MIX was chosen by Mr Sayer!

Have a really lovely weekend.
