Hello from the Head...

Happy European Day of Languages! Today we celebrate and immerse ourselves in French language, culture and enrichment - keep a look out on X for updates.

We started the week sharing our 3 new ACE Learner Expectations with the children in assembly and classes, which I shared with you last week. Children are responding really well to these, so please do continue to talk about these at home.

Be Ready Show Respect Try Your Best

As you may be aware, at the start of term we changed Management Information systems in the office. Please bear with us and our communications - we know text messaging is popular among our families and this will be possible and more frequent soon. Frustratingly - not all of the system features are available yet - thank you in advance.

Exciting news - we have partnered with Active Education for school holiday care. Moving forwards, their holiday camp/club offer will be increased, and most (if not all) days in every holiday, there will be sports camps held here at Astley. Fliers and information will be sent out soon by Active Education, and booking will be via their website.

Miss Sayer chooses the feel good Friyay tunes today, have a fantastic weekend.
