Hello from the Head...

We have had a fantastic sunny week and our classes have loved making the most of lots of learning opportunities outside – our clubs have also been back in full swing.

Well done to a fantastic group of Key Stage Two children who went out on a Netball Competition yesterday; they all worked so hard and did themselves and Astley very proud.

Next week we have a few classes out on trips – thank you for ensuring that all forms and payments are completed and returned. As the weather is now getting warmer, it is really important to ensure your child has a water bottle and that sun cream is applied in the morning before school. Sun hats are also advised.

We have noticed quite a few cases of school uniform standards slipping; lots of children are wearing trainers and also incorrect uniform. Teachers will be encouraging children to wear uniform, but also please can you ensure that school uniform requirements are adhered to, as sent out a few times this year. It is part of our school code of conduct, culture, and also is essential in terms of readiness for the next stage in school life. If you have any issues or questions regarding this, or would like a letter reminder, please speak to us.

Next Thursday the country celebrates VE day and a commemorative 80 years since the end of World War Two. All classes will be taking part in some VE learning and activities next week.

Mrs Patten has chosen our Friyay feel good songs today – enjoy the long weekend.
