Hello from the Head...

This week we have seen four classes go out on trips and what a fantastic time they all had! Lions and Tigers loved their trip to the Sealife Centre on Tuesday and Turtles and Dolphins enjoyed a day out at Amazona Zoo. Lots of fun was had and there was so much learning and enrichment for all. A big big shout out to all the parent helpers and Dr Pickhaver our Chair of Governors; without you all these opportunities would not be possible – thank you! Our Bears are looking forward to their trip to Snettisham Farm on Wednesday.

Mrs Anderson sent a letter home about our Maths ACE Day on Monday 19th May. Please join us from 8:30–9am for Maths themed fun in classes and children are welcome to wear on uniform and wear a maths / number themes outfit if they would like to. This year our day will focus on the Maths themes of time and money,

Next Monday marks the start of our Key Stage Two Assessment Week (SATs) for our Year 6 class. They have worked so incredibly hard all year, and we are already very proud of them, whatever the outcomes. A big thank you in advance to Graves Butchers for donating sausages and bacon, and to the kitchen for cooking our SATs breakfasts – great fuel for the week! I am sure you will join me in wishing them the best of luck as they complete their tests next week – you've got this Sharks.

Mrs Barber has chosen our Friyay feel good songs today – have a good weekend.
